School

Another day at school with a lot of homework and it's not even Friday yet. "So America-Senpai would you like to be my date at South Korea-Kun's party?" Said japan for the 100th time. "Yeah I would love too japan put I...I promised Canada I would go to his hockey this Saturday" I said. "Oh ok, see you tomorrow America-Senpai!!" Said japan walking away. Ugh that neko gets on my nerves. I arrived at my moms house. Well when I said moms house my mom and dad get divorced a couple of months ago. I went with my mom(France) and my brothers Canada, New Zealand and Australia went with my dad Great Britain. It was sad but me and my brothers are still in contact. "Hi mom I'm home—um" I saw my mom with some random man next to her on the couch. "Oh hi America, this is my new boyfriend Germany" She said. Oh god wait till my dad finds out. "Germany this is my son America" Germany just looked at me and went back to his reading. I went upstairs to play some video games even though it's Tuesday and I have homework I didn't care. I was playing my favorite game Vampires Castle. Well I am a big fan of vampires and stuff.
That night I stayed up all night doing my homework like a nerd and I saw Germany in the hallways sometimes going back and forth or just staring inside my room which is creepy but, who cares. The next day at school was awful! Japan kept bothering me about the party and being her date! I wish I could just jump into a lake full of oil and drown in it.

At dad's house

"So son, how was school today?" Said my dad. "Oh you know homework this and homework that blah blah blah" I said to busy playing Minecraft. "Well your mom said you can stay at my place for tonight and then you go home around 8:00pm ok" He said drinking his tea. "Yes sir," I said.

At Britain's house
My dad opened the door to his home and I see Canada, Australia and New Zealand fighting over a video game. "Alright boys! Stop fighting or there will be no dinner tonight!" Yelled my dad. Wow he is tougher than last time I remember. "America!" I say Canada runs towards me and attacked me with hugs. "How's my little brother doing" he said. "I'm doing fine thank you" I said getting out of his hugs of death. "So since I'm going to stay awhile what's for dinner" I asked. "Tea and biscuits" said dad. Of course. "You know I'll skip dinner and eat my chocolate bars instead—"No your not your eating dinner with us with the family" Said dad dragging me into the kitchen. Oh god.

Hey guys! I was just wondering in the next chapter America will meet the vampires, try and guest who the vampires are!

Bye!!!

The winner

Ok KrazyKat179 good guest you where very close...so you get to chose what to next chapter will be about oh and the vampires where USSR and Third Reich so you we're close!

Vampires

"Bye dad! Thanks for dinner!" I shouted leaving. "Bye America tell mom I said hi" yelled Canada from his bedroom window.

A couple hours later
I was walking home now and I started to notice something weird about the area. There where lots of trees and barely any street lights. Strange. "AAAAHHHH!!!" I heard screaming. A girl scream and it's coming from the woods. I ran in there as fast as I could to help them but then I saw the most horrible thing I saw. I saw to men holding the girl and she was bleeding from her neck. The men had sharp fangs sticking out of their mouths it was so gross. "Hey you! Stop right there" they shouted. Oh god they say me I have to get out of here. The men ran after me but I was quicker than them. I arrived home in an hour later but I was still scared to look outside to see if they were still there. "America your alright?" I jumped when my mom said that. "Y-yeah just tired" I said. "Ok remember you have a test tomorrow and I want you to get some rest ok" she said. Later on that I couldn't sleep I don't know why but I forced myself to sleep and it worked. The next day I woke up in a strange room but not my room. "Hello Darling~" oh no.

Darling~

I saw two vampires men staring down at like I was little kid who was lost. "Hello dear~ did you enjoy your sleep~?" Said the one with a patch oh his face. "Um...who are you and what am I doing here!?" I shouted. "Calm down darling where no going to hurt you" He said. "Um your vampires and I saw what you did to that girl!" I said. "Oh I forgot allow us to introduce our selfs...My name is USSR and this is Third Reich" said USSR. "Ok I'm America and what do you want from me?" I asked. "Well since you know we're vampires you could be our pet or be our slave you choose" Third Reich said. "Slave—" "Pet it is!" USSR shouted. "What no I chose slave" I said. "Doesn't matter your ours now~" USSR said. I wish I was home holding my oil.

New job bites it

[image]

"Ooh Darling~" USSR teased. "We need to talk to you" I ran over to them all with the stupid maid outfit. "Yes?" I asked. "Tonight were going to have vampire ball, so we want you to stay up here so no one takes you away from us~" Said Third Reich. "Wait wait wait....a vampire ball as in a party downstairs with a bunch of vampires!?" I asked/yelled. "Yes" Ussr replied. I did a face palm to both of them. "Ok so I can stay upstairs while you guys party downstairs?" I asked. "If you want too dear~" Said Third Reich. "Ok thanks I don't think I wanna be around a hundred vampires" I said hugging them both. All of a sudden I felt a kiss being placed down on my head. I blushed. They....care

Attacker

I had to stay upstairs the whole time while USSR and Third where partying downstairs. I would be boring anyway cause of all the slow music and mushy love stuff gross. I turned on the T.V and started watching some movies, anime and other stuff a teenager would watch.

Unknown P.o.v
I snuck upstairs from the party because I was bored. Even though USSR and Reich said no one is aloud up there I went anyway. Wait...I smell this strong smell a very sweet smell. I followed on where the smell was coming. It led to a bedroom. I heard laughter coming from there. Why would someone be up here. I smelled the air again...that's the smell coming from the person....they're....human.

America's P.o.v
I was watching dance moms until the room went dark. I turned on my phones flashlight to look around for the lamp until I got pushed behind me and fell onto the floor in pain. "Ahh!" I screamed out in pain. "Don't move" I heard. Oh no there's other vampire in this room I have to find my phone quick before I get bitten. I ran around the dark room trying to find my phone but who the vampire was they were strong. I finally found my phone shined my flashlight into they face as they hissed and fell to they ground. "Now why are you—"
I stopped for a moment. Tears ran down my face. "D-dad?"

Dad

"D-Dad" I said. "Son!?" My dad ran up to me and hugged me for dear life. "S-son I-I didn't know and" I stopped him and cried he also cried with me. After a while it was just quiet. "So your a vampire?" I began. "Yes" he said. "Did mom knew?" I asked "yes but, when we gave birth to your brothers and you it was different....you and New Zealand are human and Canada and Australia are vampires" he said. I hugged him once more and cried. "Shhh...shhh it's okay" he said calming me down. "I wish you told me sooner" I said. "I know me too but I was to scared to tell you after you left with your mother" he said. I continued to cry in his arms. "America" I looked up and saw USSR and Third Reich at the door. Crap

Busted

"America who is that?" USSR said with a cold tone. "Uh" I didn't know how to say it until my dad started talking. "Did you kidnap my son" Britain demanded. "Well yes but, are you trying to steal our pet?" Third reich replied. They all started arguing back and forth. "All right enough!" I shouted. They all stared at me. USSR came over with a look of rage. "Who said you could yell at your master!?" He shouted. "I don't care anymore! Come do it suck my blood if you have too! Come on!" I shouted. "You leave us with no choice my dear~" USSR tan over to my dad and stabbed him with a wooden steak. "DAD!!" I saw him crash onto to the ground. I ran over to him with tears as I saw him took his last breath. "Well now America you have a choice" Third Reich said. "Please I'll do anything just don't hurt anyone else who is in my family!" I cried. USSR leaded towards my ear and whispered. "Marry me darling~"

Marry you?

"W-what?! Marry you!?" I screamed. "Either that or I suck the blood out of you" said USSR. I looked down at my dead father and sighed. "Fine I will but I'm only fifteen...I'm too young to marry" I said. "Well in vampires days with your around fifteen or sixteen you can marry" He said. He put his arm around me and pull me closer too him. "It's okay darling we'll have a wonderful long life together~" he said. "Wait how old are you?" I asked. "I am 230 years old" said USSR. He talked about 4 hours about me and him getting married and having kids and stuff. Oh dear god help me.

Vampire's bride

USSR's P.o.v
sigh I just love my new lover he is so cute and innocent. My favorite I took a picture of him when he was sleeping. "Ussr?" I turned around to see my darling little human. "Can I move into a new room instead of the guest room? It's very dirty in there" America said. "Why of course dear~You can sleep with me in my room" I said. He turn red when I said that. sigh I just love him like I did....along time ago

Ussr's past

America's P.o.v
It's been 7 months from now and Ussr is getting ready for the wedding. Well, I do like him but I don't know how the relationship will go after the marriage, I know that he is a vampire and I'm a human it won't work when a blood moon come he'll just eat me up alive. Should I run around or....I look down at the ring he gave me from months ago...or should I run away?

Leave a comment down below and think...should America stay or run away?

Wedding day

America's p.o.v
Here I am...the maids are getting me ready for USSR's wedding and I'm in a dress. I peek out from the window and see USSR in a suit and they are a lot of vampires...I mean a lot! "Mister it's time" said a maid. I walked down the path and USSR was waiting for me, he smiled showing his sharp fangs almost like he wanted to bite me and make me a vampire. The priest went on and on till we got to the part. "USSR do you take America as your lawful wedded wife" He asked. "I do" USSR. "And you America take USSR as you lawful wedded husband?" The priest asked. "I—"

"STOP THE WEDDING!" Shouted a voice. I turned to see Third Reich and another USSR?!
"THAT USSR IS THE FAKE ONE!"

Fake one? What is going on?....

Fake Ussr?!

"That's the fake USSR!" Third Reich shouted. Wait what?! I looked at the other Ussr with third Reich he was angry. Then I got the story. It was a science experience,

Who's real and whos fake?

As the fake USSR took off his makeup...he showed 3 colors red white and blue, just like America's color. "You! Give back to you sell! NOW!" Yelled USSR. "No!" Yelled the fake one back. "Wait then who is the real one?" America asked. "America my name is russia and you have to believe I'm the real one I had to make myself look like USSR because if he saw me with you I would be gone" said Russia. "America don't listen to him!" Said USSR. America didn't know who to choose so he grabbed a bucket of hot water and splashed it on both of them. USSR yelled in pain but russia didn't instead USSR started to burn and burn. "You fool!" He shouted. "I was the one to marry America! I was supposed to be your brother russia!" He started to burn until he was gone.

later on after the whole thing

Russia then explained himself to America. Russia was to one he feel in love with America but Russia secretly made a copy of himself to have a brother because he family members pasted away but then the copy heard about America he locked Russia in a cage and painted himself to look like USSR (russia was already USSR but he started to turn into Russia sorry if you guys got confused) that explains why he wanted a wedding so quickly.

Update

Hello everyone. I know I haven't really been updating for awhile but I am writing new stories if you guys are interested. I'm writing an Among us and a Henry Stickmin story. Don't worry I'll update this book as soon as I can. I just need help with new chapters that's all.

Bye ✌

Running away

America's POV
As Russia fell asleep I escaped the castle and ran into the dark woods. I ran until it felt like for hours till I fainted. I woke up in a old rusty bed and I thought I smelled something stinky. "I see that you're awake now," said a voice. "Huh—". I looked to see someone sitting in a chair in the corner lighting up a cigarette. "W-who are you?" I asked. "Hm? You don't recognize me Ame?" He said. "Wait...uncle Usa?" I said. "You sure got it kiddo!" He said. I ran out of the bed and hugged him. "Oh my god...I—I" I was cut off. "Shh it's ok kid let it all out" he replied. I burst into tears as he tried to calm me down. "I have been though so much!" I sobbed. "It's okay kid..." he said.

I am back baby hahahahahahaha!!!
